Laffin

Well, Mr. Editor, I must try my luck again in getting up a few items from this neck of the woods.

Health is good and the weather is fine.

Wheat sowing is about over so far as I know and a good crop has been sown. Wm. Strong says he put in thirty-one acres and he is 61 years old. That's pretty good.

Wm. Strong lost his favorite family nag a short time ago. She was 28 years and 6 months old. She had been a faithful animal all her life and besides the work she did she raised a number of colts that would always bring good prices. She helped to make the last corn crop and died eating some of the fruit of her last labor. After she was not able to get up, food and water were carried to her as long as she could eat.

Corn gathering is at hand now. Several of my neighbors will begin Monday morning.

Lloyd Penturf and Hoksey Crites landed at home from the southern counties recently, where they had been employed, for the purpose of taking care of their corn crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. M. Penturf, Mrs. Columbia Nunning and A. D. Eaker and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crites Sunday and all enjoyed the day.

I will close for this time, with best wishes to THE PRESS and its many readers.

BIGGEST SYNDICATE

IN MISSOURI TO MEET IN LARG-EST SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Will Take Place in City of St. Louis,
Nov. 16, 17 and 18.

As no other organization in Missouri enrolls as many as 606,000 members, the Missouri Sunday School Association claims to be "Missouri's Biggest Syndicate." The Third Baptist Church, St. Louis, has the largest Sunday school in Missouri, enrolling 2,356 members. Their building will be main headquarters for the "Golden Jubilee" Convention of the Missouri Association, Nov. 16, 17 and 18.

DR. W. J. WILLIAMSON.

From Tuesday morning, Nov. 16, to the close, Thursday night, there will not be a dull moment—no time will be wasted in the usual welcomes, responses, etc. The opening session, for example, will contain a "Service of Song" led by Prof. S. H. Meyers of Detroit; a real Bible study, by Dr. John A. Rice; an address on "Christian Publicity," by Dean Walter Williams of the University of Missouri, and one on "Working Together," by Dr. W. J. Williamson.

The convention theme will be "Forward," which will also become the slogan for the coming year. The closing session will contain an illustrated address on "Famous Sunday Schools of America," by Prof. Walter S. Athearn of Drake University, Des Moines, and the climax will be reached in the closing message, "Forward," by Dr. Frank G. Smith of Kansas City.

MRS. MARY F. BRYNER.

Other specialists of national reputation will be: W. C. Pearce, Allen L. Alexander and Mrs. May Foster Bryner of the International Sunday School Association; Mrs. Annette A. Lamoreaux, author of "Unfolding Life"; Dr. J. N. McDougal, community specialist; Mrs. Katharine W. Eddy and John H. Eadie of Kansas; Prof. J. D. Elliott of Columbia; Prof. George Platt Knox of St. Louis and many others.

Every phase of Sunday School work will be represented in the "educational exhibit" by maps, charts, programs, advertising material, pupils' handwork, etc. Commercial publishing houses will also display all kinds of helps and supplies.

DR. FRANK G. SMITH.

In reality, the convention will be a great training school offering "normal" instruction in the principles and methods of religious education. There will be 15 separate conferences of half a day each, besides 19 general mass sessions. The Wednesday afternoon "Recognition of Counties" service will be exceedingly interesting, giving a bird's-eye view of conditions over the whole state and showing the relative standing of the various counties in Sunday School efficiency.

Unusual interest is being manifested in the "Golden Jubilee" and fully 2,000 delegates will attend. Full particulars, programs, etc., may be had of the Missouri Sunday School Association, Pullerton Building, St. Louis.
